

Nigerian American Public Affairs Committee (NAPAC) & Coalition Present CPC Policy Recommendations to U.S. State Dept.

A coalition of Nigerian American groups briefed the U.S. State Dept, offering recommendations to strengthen U.S.-Nigeria relations after the CPC decision.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, December 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On December 4, 2025, a coalition of leading Nigerian American organizations, including the Nigerian American Public Affairs Committee (NAPAC), the Nigerian Center, the Nigerians in Diaspora Organization, Americas (NIDOA), and the Nigerian Physicians Advocacy Group (NPAG) met with the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of West African Affairs Nigeria Desk to discuss and present their policy document titled "Recommendations for Strengthening U.S.-Nigeria Engagement Following Nigeria's Re-Designation as a Country of Particular Concern (CPC)."

The coalition urged both the Nigerian and U.S. governments to pursue a transparent and cooperative approach that reinforces the long-standing friendship and strategic partnership between the two nations. They emphasized the Nigerian American community as a vital bridge
