

Start your Company Setup in Dubai with 100% Foreign Ownership

Start your company setup in Dubai with 100% foreign ownership. Benefit from easy registration, & business-friendly environment designed for global entrepreneurs.

DUBAI, DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, December 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dubai, the epitome of successful businesses around the globe, has always been in the news because of its foreign investment. Every now and then, foreigners seek refuge in Dubai for their company registration. As leading business setup consultants in Dubai, Make My Firm states that Dubai is a thriving land with successful businesses. But, alongside successful businesses, non-residents were also stressed about having only 49% ownership in their own business. To address the issue, the Dubai government took necessary steps and introduced 100% foreign ownership in Dubai.

Due to the new amendments in the government policies, we have seen an upsurge in foreigners setting up their business in Dubai. However, we are happy we get to be part of many business owners' various ideas about their company setup. The amendment in the form has made people happy that now they can enjoy benefits such as more power, flexibility, profit opportunities and various other things with low-cost business setup services.

While you are thinking about your brilliant idea for a business setup in Dubai, you might wonder whether to choose a limited liability company formation or a sole proprietorship for your business structure. Or, on the other hand, a mainland business setup, free zone, or some other zone. It is genuine to have various questions in your mind when you are thinking about company formation, but it can all be seamless if you have the right business consultancy partner in Dubai who assists you in the right way.

Launching a business in Dubai can be effortless if you have the right partner by your side.
