

Transformative Growth Counseling Launches Workforce Recruitment for Master's-Level Internship Program

Transformative Growth Counseling is accepting applications for its master's-level internship program, supporting workforce development and future clinicians.

NAPERVILLE, IL, UNITED STATES, December 30, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Transformative Growth Counseling (TGC), a mission-driven nonprofit behavioral health organization, announces the opening of its Master's-Level Internship Program recruitment cycle as part of its ongoing workforce development and clinician pipeline-building efforts. This program is designed to prepare the next generation of mental health professionals through high-quality supervised training while expanding access to care for underserved and marginalized communities.

Master's-level clinical internships at TGC

The Master's-Level Internship Program provides a structured, supportive clinical training experience for graduate students in counseling, psychology, and social work. Interns receive hands-on clinical exposure under licensed supervision while contributing to community-based services that directly address gaps in mental health care.

Building the Behavioral Health Workforce

As part of TGC's workforce development strategy, the internship program focuses on:

- Developing clinically competent, socially conscious future clinicians
- Providing supervised, real-world training aligned with licensure pathways
- Strengthening the mental health workforce serving high-need communities

Increasing sustainable access to care through trained intern providers
Interns play an active role in service delivery and community engagement, allowing TGC to expand its reach while offering meaningful learning opportunities.

Internship Experience

Master's-level interns will gain experience in:

Direct clinical work under licensed supervision

Peer-to-peer programming and collaborative case consultation

Community outreach and mental health education

Exposure to research programming (when applicable)

Program development and equity-centered initiatives

Internships run 6-12 months, depending on academic and program requirements.

Application Timeline & Requirements

The typical recruitment cycle runs November through mid-March, with applications accepted on a rolling basis. Due to limited placement availability, early application is encouraged. Applicants with nontraditional academic calendars are welcome and should note their timelines in their application email.

Required application materials include:

Cover letter

Resume or CV

Unofficial transcript

(Optional but encouraged) Writing sample (e.g., case study, research paper, or clinical reflection)

Application Submission:

Materials should be emailed to apply@transformativegrowth.org and include:

Current degree program

Intended licensure path (LCPC, LMFT, LCSW, or BCBA)

Required internship dates

Opportunities for Licensed Clinicians

In addition to intern recruitment, TGC continues to hire licensed clinicians to support supervision, service delivery, and team-based care. TGC offers a collaborative, inclusive, and LGBTQIA+-affirming environment grounded in social justice and community wellness.

Licensure welcomed:

LPC, LCPC

LSW, LCSW

LMFT

BCBA

Licensed clinicians work in a hybrid model, typically:

2-3 days per week in-office

Telehealth sessions on remaining days

How to Apply:

Licensed clinicians interested in full-time or part-time opportunities should email a cover letter and resume to apply@transformativegrowth.org, indicating preferred location(s).

About Transformative Growth Counseling

Transformative Growth Counseling is a nonprofit behavioral health organization dedicated to advancing equitable access to mental health services. Through clinical care, community outreach, and workforce development initiatives, TGC strengthens both individual well-being and the systems that support community mental health.
